

K2 Medical Systems

Software Product Support Technician

K2 Medical Systems develops software medical devices for maternity care. Our products are used in 24 countries around the World.

Role:

Full Time, Office hours. Provide telephone support to midwife and doctors who use our online computer based training software.

Person:

You will be quick to learn new technology and have fantastic communication skills. You will be patient and courteous at all times and be capable of providing effective solutions to our customers. Computer skills are essential as is a demonstrable track record of learning. Previous experience of product support an advantage.

Remuneration:

£16-18k per annum depending on experience. Employer contribution to personal pension. Share options following 3 year's service.

Application:

Please send CVs and letters of application to gemmaw@k2ms.com